

I wish to go on record as opposing efforts by the Consumer Bankers Association to weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. I feel most fortunate to have a law that protects me from being continually harrassed by telemarketers, etc. and hope the FCC will help keep my days and evenings peaceful by rejecting the CBA's petition. Thank you.

Jerry Castor